

Garden of the Salish Sea Curriculum Post-assessment

School _____ Grade _____ Teacher _____

- 1) What is the name of the watershed that you live in? _____
- 2) Where does pollution like poop and oil that is on the ground go when it rains?

- 3) Give 2 examples of foods grown in the intertidal zone.
a) _____ b) _____
- 4) Is it important to keep poop out of water? Yes/No Why, explain.

- 5) What is the name of the thing we measured to determine the acidity of a liquid? _____
- 6) Is it important to reduce carbon dioxide in the atmosphere? Yes/No Why, explain.

- 7) Did you start doing anything to care for the environment during this shellfish unit? Yes/No
If yes, what did you start doing and how often (circle one)? _____

Daily Weekly Monthly Other _____
- 8) Were you already doing something to care for the environment before this unit? Yes/No
If so What? _____

Will you keep doing it or do even more because of what you learned? Yes/No
- 9) Did your family begin doing anything to care for the environment during this unit? Yes/no
If yes, what and how often (circle one)? _____

Daily Weekly Monthly Other _____
- 10) Did you become more interested in learning about science during this unit? Yes/No

Please return to Garden of the Salish Sea Curriculum Staff - Thank you
All rights reserved © Garden of the Salish Sea Curriculum
<https://gardensalishsea.squarespace.com>

